It is to Union Chunch.—Diving Worship, 11 | presumed the knowledge of his whereabouts declared to have been got at Canton must have been a rather hasty assumption.

> An inquest was held this afternoon at the Mortuary on the bodies of two boys Ngai Shikpo and Le Ahu, 13 and 11 years of age respectively, who were drawned yesterday morning at Mong Kok Tsui. It is supposed that they had been bathing in the water near where some timber was floating and had fallen off the timber into deep water.

Afat but better known by the sobriquet of Sunday; and after the evening Service on Ai Chai or dwarf, who, as we reported last Saturday, had got his dwelling house burned down while he was laying information at the Police Office; appeared to-day at Court with two men whom he accused of burning his house. His wife gave some evidence as to having seen the men coming as it from the house after the occurrence took place, but the evidence was too slender to secure a conviction. The dwarf thought he had not got justice and dramatically laid off his grievances to some friends about the

> The German squadron on this station, consisting of the criusers Bismarck and Olga, the former bearing the flag of Rear Admiral Knorr, the corvette Carola, and gunboats Wolf and Nautilus, after stay here of about a month, during which they have been manned by relief crews left here to day for the North on a cruise. According to the Shanghai Mercury the squadron will probably call at Chefoo first, and will then proceed to various treaty ports in China and Japan. About the end of the year, the Mercury says, the Bismarck, Olga and Carola, will leave for the South, making their way, via Singapore, to Africa.

THE Northern Territory Times is, we note. glad to learn that Mr J. E. Tenison Woods is pushing on with his geological examination of the mining districts in the Territory, and yet more pleased to learn that his impressions of the country he has as yet examined have been extremely favourable.

THE New York Whist Club is considering the propriety of challenging one of the bes London clubs to play a rubber by cable Now that the cable rates are so low it is estimated that a game can be sent over the wires for about $50, the hand being tele graphed in cipher and the different cards led by a single word. The difficulty is that auch a game would be more like double dummy than whist, as all the hands would be known before the play commenced. A chess match by cable is already arranged, and the whist rubber will probably follow in the Autump.

A TELEGRAM in an American paper reads as follows :- London, July 21. - Private dis patches tend to confirm the threatened occupation by the Russians of Port Lazareff. Russia has long had a coaling station there, for which she paid yearly a bounty to the Corean Government. Russia and China recently made mutual concessions regarding the Manchooria frontier, and it is believed China will quietly acquiesce in Russian occupation of Port Lazareff in revenge for England's refusal to acknowledge China's suzerainty over Burmah. In the event of war between Russia and England, Port Lazareff places Russia in a more advantageous position for both offensive and defensive operations than during the recent Russo-Afghan crisis. The occupation of Port Hamilton by England at that time was a serious blow to Russia's operations. In military circles the matter is regarded of serious import.

THE Queenslander publishes the following as a telegram from Cooktown dated the 17th July :- The Gibbs line steamer Killarney, from Foochow, with a cargo of tea, ground ed on Gibber Rock when entering the harbour this morning, and remained fast all day. She floated off at night, however, without having sustained any apparent damage. The accident arose through the captain, who is a stranger, entering the port without a pilot, and taking the wrong passage. Captain Duncan, of the Jane Anderson, is a passenger, and reports the loss of his vessel on Melville Island. The captain and crew made Port Darwin, after being five days in the boats.

A later telegram says: -The Jane Ander son struck on Mermaid Reaf, Melville Island, on the 20th June. She came off, and The next American Man, per the O. whilst trying to make Port Darwin founders & O. Co.'s steamer Belgic is to leave ed near Bathurst Island on the 2nd July. A CORRESPONDENT sends to the Rangoon occupied by the English, and will probabl and Liverpool, left Singapore for this become in a short time a very important trading station. In the autumn of this and may be expected here on or about year many thousands of Chinese will doubtthe 22nd inst. less cross the hills in search of fortune. The Austro-Hungarian Lloyd's S. N. Co.'s Some will find it as did one man who came steamer Brenice, from Trieste, left here a few years ago as a craftsman, and is now worth three lakhs of rupees-whilst may be expected here on or about the many others will die here, as some are doing now. By the nearest route to China, Manwynne (Manyuin) is reached from Bhamo in two days, though by the route presently used it is four days journey. The main road lies through the Shan district consisting of the fertile and populous valley of the Taiping river with the adjacent valleys. Mr Colomboun's proposed route from Raugoon via Zimme or Kiangwai to Syman or Esmok will doubtless be the route of the future for the supply of a great part of the Yunnan province with European Scobs; but still there will always be, I believe, a very considerable caravan trade scross the Kachyen hills, to supply the Misercatur, Gas : Bymns, 224, 291 present and indute an increasing demand for European piece goods &c. I believe it would be a paying venture for a large Rangoon or English firm to establish a branch here, with an English agent and English speaking Burmans. It would be cellent passage from San Francisco to Yo- potsible for him to rely upon English and Burmese trade, while opening connections for Chinese trade.

New York, July 23 .- A London dispatch from Sophia states that the collection of war stores and arms and the drilling of troops are going on with renewed activity. Military preparations are also progressing on the Servian line of the frontier. The situation in both countries indicates uncertainty as to the duration of peace. Reports from Montenegrin sources show that the Turkish forces in Albania are receiving reinforcements, the intention apparently being to bring the garrison up to a war footing. Russia is getting bolder and now demands the cession of Erzeroum, in Armenia, the possession of which would give her the key to the whole country south. The necessity of supporting Turkey against further Russian encroachments is universally assured.

New York, July 24.—A Havro dispatch to the Herald says that a sloop loaded with five tons of dynamite was damaged in a storm on Friday morning and it was decided to unload the cargo about midnight. Part of the dynamite exploded, breaking hundreds of windows, putting out the gas in all the streets in the lower part of the town and throwing fragments of the pier as far as 100. yards from the spot. The anchor of the sloop penetrated the wall of a small mansion near the Hotel Frasioti, where there is not a pane of glass left unbroken. Fortunately, there was a pouring rain at the time and the pier was descried, so that there is no loss of life to deplore.

New York, July 24.—The Herald's London correspondent reports a narrow escape from death of M. Burckhardt, a Swiss gentlemen, and two guides. Tentschmanti and Jossi, in the attempt to climb the Jungiran, When high up, an enormous piece of the glacier came thundering down upon them. Though not in the direct path, they were struck by several pieces of flying ice. Jossi, who was leading, went head first into a crevasse of unfathomable depth, dragging after him Burckhardt, who, however, contrived to hold on the edge of the crevause in such a position that he could not budge, and was not able to help either himself or Jossi Their lives depended for an hour or more on Teutschmann, who kept his feet and held on to the rope until aid reached them. A single slip of his foot and all would have gone to the botton of the orevasse.

FRAGRANT WATERS MURMUR That the full and true history of the breechloading-gun episode in the Council has vet to be told.

That at the same time the Chamber of Commerce ought to have frankly and promptly come out with the Governmental version, instead of bottling-up that official letter. That the Chamber had nothing to lose by

That, in these days of instantaneous photography to scale, the enemy will be sure to know or learn all about it, in spite of all these soft slipper and tiptoe move-

That it is to be hoped that the breech-loading guns which we are actually to receive are not of the type of those supplied to the ironclad Ajax, which have become useless after firing a few rounds. That the British Imperial authorities should keep a strict watch, and at once interfere should the Canton authorities attempt to levy black-mail on native residents here who claim British protection. That the time has come to settle the status of Chinese claiming British protection, and it is hoped that the new British Minister to Peking will arrange this That if the Hongkong Government, with infinitely better security than the Canton officials ever offer, does not ask for money to be lent by the Chinese merchants here, there is no reason why the Cantonese inagnates should do so. That if the Hongkong Government brought pressure to bear to obtain a forced loan at 31 per cent. - which, of course, they won't do-it would be fairer than the Cantonese idea, because there would be honest security for repayment, as well as for payment of interest. That this business of a Chinese forced loan gives an ominous significance to the reported desire of Sir Robert Hart to extend the Foreign branch of the Imperial Maritime Customs branch in South That any reform such as that credited to Sir Robert Hart must uttorly fail to ameliorate the position, unless it includes the satisfaction of all provincial demands on the revenue. That although the River Steamer's chartered coal-junk has been released to a private applicant, and has arrived in Macao, nothing has yet been heard from the Oolonial Government as to the reasons for her detention.

That the new Hongkong Bank offices are internally an architectural success, and that their healthful adaptation to the requirements of the climate will prove to be a boon to all concerned.

That it has not yet been decided whether the new Lazaretto will be built on Gap Rock or Green Island.

That Sir Robert Hart will confer a great benefit on China if he succeeds in estab. lishing an efficient Postal Service.

That the community rejeice to see that Captain Thomsett's strong practical commonsense and experience have once more been thrown into the scales of the Legislative Council's deliberations.

That as the Sanitary Roard seems likely to bloom afresh under the progressive using of the Municipal Board of Health, it is. hoped that it will speedily make its influence felt over the length and breadth of the so-called Municipality.

That the important question as to what causes this malarial or other fever now reging calls for a special inquiry.
